Musty Assets—A Word to Business Men.

Take down your ledger, open your pocket book, pull out your drawers, look over your papers and see what portion of your capital is lying dead. If you are actually in business (and if you are not you ought to be) all such capital should be brought into use as soon as possible. Time flies, and such assets rapidly vanish and fly also. Don't flatter yourself that by-and-by you will get 50 per cent. more than at present. It may be so, and it may not. Some men think it best to retire from a good business, for a while "in order to settle up old matters." Better to go to work by the day than thus to fritter away your precious time. Twenty-one years of a man's life is devoted to drilling, to prepare for the great campaign of business before him. Three-score and ten is the farthest bound. Fifteen of the last of these years can hardly be worth more on an average than the price given to "keep what you have got." Thus at the beginning and end, there are (21 and 15) thirty-six years during which little, if any, very profitable labor—as far as money results are concerned—can be made available. Now, why spend the most valuable portion of this active period in digging and delving over old musty debts. Except with rogues and scoundrels, deal promptly and liberally. Make up your mind in regard to the amount you will probably get, not what you ought to have, and then make a settlement as near that figure as possible. If you cannot do as you would, do as you can, and then balance your books and give your time to live instead of dead matters. It will be more pleasant, and in the end more profitable. The best time to look after bad debts is to look before. All after-looking is generally time spent at a high price. We believe as things run, from year to year, that the best way is to settle upon some terms every debt as soon as it is found that it is in a doubtful state. Take what you can get—ninety, sixty, thirty, or ten cents to the dollar. Of course a mistake will now and then be made, but when the dividend is once in hand, however small it may be, use it with more care than before. An old debt once settled can certainly never bother you again, that is one comfort. Above all things as much as lie in you, live peaceably with all men—i. e., don't go to law if you can avoid it. Be your own lawyer, and make your own collection. Time flies, and your life is fast passing. Let your best efforts be put forth in the very centre of your business. In that direction there is profit and what is more—satisfaction.

THE SCHOOL OF DIFFICULTY.—The most prolific school of all has been the school of difficulty. Some of the very best workmen have had the most indifferent tools to work with. But it is not tools that makes the workman, but the trained skill and perseverance of the man himself. Indeed it is proverbial that the bad workman never yet had a good tool. Some one asked Opie by what wonderful process he mixed his colors. "I mix them with my brains, sir," was his reply. It is the same with every man who would excel. Ferguson made marvellous things—such as his wooden clock, that accurately measured the hours—by means of a penknife, a tool in every body's hand; but when every body is not a Ferguson. An eminent foreign Savant once called upon Dr. Wollaston, and requested to be shown over his laboratories, in which science had been enriched by so many important discoveries, when the doctor took him into his little study, and pointing to an old tea-tray on the table, containing a few watch-glasses, test-papers, a small balance, and a blow-pipe, said, "there is all the laboratory that I have." Scythard earned the art of combining colors by closely studying butterflies' wings; he would often say that no one knew what he owed to these tiny insects. A burned stick and a barn-door served Wilkie in lieu of pencil and canvas. Bewick first practised drawing on the cottage walls of his native village, which he covered with his sketches in chalk; and Benjamin West made his first brushes out of the cat's tail. Ferguson laid himself down in the fields at night in a blanket, and made a map of the heavenly bodies by means of a thread with small beads on it stretched between his eyes and the stars. Franklin first robbed the thunder-cloud of its lightning by means of a kite made with two cross sticks and a silk handkerchief. Watt made his first model of the condensing steam-engine out of an old anatomist's syringe, used to inject arteries previous to dissection. Gifford worked his first problem in mathematics when a cobbler's apprentice upon small scraps of leather, which he beat smooth for the purpose; whilst Rittenhouse, the astronomer, first calculated eclipses on his ploughhandle.

SATURDAY EVENING.—Every Saturday evening has, to my ear, a gentle knell. The week tolls itself away—one, two, three, four, five, six and the perfect seven—and I can almost hear the sound dying away as if the days had slipped their cables, and were drifting down the stream, but beating faint measures as they recede! And of every one, I may say—ended! gone! I shall see thee no more! How have we improved them!

REMOVAL.

The Publication Office of the DAILY BRITISH COLONIST has been removed from Wharf street, to the new Brick Building, on Government street, second door south of the Post Office, up stairs, where all orders for Advertising, Job Work, etc., must in future be left.

Tuesday Morning, Sept. 11, 1860.

The "Little Jews" Imbroglio.

In this mercurial community, if we don't get our regular semi-monthly excitement, everybody has something to complain about. But, when we get a grievance to raise the mercury suddenly, then we have a general pitch-in, and all minor grievances are for the time ignored. Last Saturday morning might be called a regular field-day—if a half-day can be called a day. Our impoverished cotemporary took the bait. Up it went like a lark till it reached a dizzy height; when suddenly down it fell flat to the earth like a thousand of bricks. In its last gasp, as a veritable Cheap John, the wretched rag was heard to say—"Sold again."

The grievance this time was the "Colonist." The Colonist that had fought everybody's battle for two years had at last refused—yes, "peremptorily refused"—to fight the battle between Major Foster and "the little Jews of Johnson street." It could not be believed, that the Colonist had failed to fight. When we—the Colonist—heard it, we found ourselves as incredulous as the old Baptist deacon. Some one came to his funeral, but found the deacon alive and well. He told him he had heard that he was dead. "Oh!" said the deacon, "I knew it was a lie as soon as I heard it." So with us. We knew it was a lie as soon as we heard it; and when we told the parties most interested, they were also as well satisfied as we were that it was a lie.

Now what was all this hub-bub about? We will tell you. In our Thursday's issue was a report of the proceedings of the Assembly. In that report Major Foster is reported to have said:

When we passed the section that farming lands should be exempted, there was only one idea—all improvements were to be exempted. We want a rural population; our farming lands must be settled-up. The Attorney General has been conversing with some of the little Jews on Johnson street. Ask them if they want 20,000 Indians brought here; they will reply—"By all means, Mr. Attorney General, bring them along; they will buy our goods and make business brisk." What do that class of people care if the town was burnt up tomorrow; the next day they are off for San Francisco. This is the class that has influenced the Attorney General in bringing in his resolution. If we tax our farming lands, we must expect to still draw our supplies from a foreign country.

During the morning, Mr. Copperman called on us and promised to bring a communication in reply. We expressed a willingness to publish it. In the afternoon, Mr. Copperman with Mr. Koshland, brought to our office the letter, which subsequently appeared in the Gazette over the name of David Shipser. We suggested that a better article should be written on the subject. After some discussion, both gentlemen withdrew, as we supposed, to modify the letter, and deal more directly and dignifiedly with the matter at issue. Towards evening, however, Mr. Shipser brought it back, and wished it published, either as an advertisement, or as a communication. We pointed out the words "inveterate animosity;" and told him that the circumstances did not warrant such language; that we believed them untrue; and what we believed untrue we would not publish in our columns for five hundred dollars, or for any sum whatever. For a proof of which, here is a letter from Mr. Shipser himself, stating what occurred between us. He, however, denies the authorship of the letter which preceded his—signed—"The Petty Little Jews."

VICTORIA, Sept. 8, 1860.

EDITOR BRITISH COLONIST:—Sir—In a letter published in last Saturday's Gazette, there is a communication signed by me, and preceded by a letter signed "Some of the Petty Little Jews." In the latter it is asserted that "Amor De Cosmos peremptorily refused [the letter] insertion in his paper," either as "a communication or an advertisement." It further states—"As we more than suspect the reason of the refusal, we must appeal to you [the Gazette] to publish it."

The inference drawn from these extracts is, that Mr. De Cosmos gave no reasons for refusing to publish it either as an advertisement or communication. This is untrue. He stated that if the charge against Major Foster of "inveterate animosity against the Jews" was left out, that he would publish it, either one way or other. But believing the charge of "inveterate animosity" against the Jews to be untrue, he would not publish what he believed to be an untruth for five hundred dollars, or any amount whatever. As I objected to erase the objectionable words, my letter was not published in the BRITISH COLONIST.

Yours, DAVID SHIPSER.

From this statement of facts, we put the question to every intelligent man, would we do right to allow our columns to be made a vehicle to utter what is untrue? What is there in the extract from Major Foster's speech from which any one can charge him with "inveterate animosity against the Jews"? Nothing. Admit that his words may be capable of being construed into a reflection on the Jews of Johnson street; still that does not prove "inveterate animosity against the Jews." Were a party to be arraigned before the Police Judge only once for intoxication, we could not charge him with being an "inveterate drunkard;" were we to do so, we would exceed our duty. With this view of the question, we declined to publish Shipser's letter, either as an advertisement or as a communication. We would do so over and over again. What is more we wish it to be distinctly understood that no communication nor no advertisement reflecting upon any gentleman whether a private citizen or a public man, except it is supported by such evidence as we may think worthy of credence, can have a place in the BRITISH COLONIST. The money is not coined that can change our views on that subject. Some may think that because a matter is put in the form of an advertisement, we ought to publish it. We do not subscribe to any such doctrine. Were that the case any man's good name could be blasted for a few dollars. The conductor of a paper may know the advertisement to be untrue; still he is bound to publish the untruth! Out upon such a dogma. We are well satisfied that the good sense of this community supports us in repudiating it. It is then to sustain such pernicious dogmas as these that our cotemporary on Saturday was carried away with a column and a half of "hifaluten twaddle."

Another straightforward rule we maintain in our reports. Our reporter has but one order—to give a true report to the best of his judgment, no matter who it injures. Thus there is nothing "inexplicable" about the publication of Major Foster's speech. We suppress nothing that is true; nor will we. When we cannot conduct the Colonist in that way, we will relinquish the profession to such worthless rags as the Gazette.

HOMEWARD BOUND.—H. M. S. Ganges, bearing the flag of Rear Admiral Baynes, left Esquimalt yesterday morning about daylight for England. She was towed out by H. M. S. Termagant. The latter will proceed to San Francisco with the Ganges and there be overhauled, and then return to this place whilst the flag-ship proceeds home, touching at points on the coast of South America. Before leaving the harbor the yards were manned and a hearty farewell cheer given. During the stay of her gallant officers on this station they have made hosts of warm friends who regret their departure.

A QUEER GIFT.—The body of a murdered man, named Joseph Tarnowski, was found at San José, California, lately. In one of the pockets of his coat was found a notebook, on a leaf of which was written: "Dreamed Jan. 25th, that I see my mother, and she give me money to buy nails to make a coffin!" It is presumed that Joseph took "the money" thus furnished by his maternal relative, and instead of buying "nails" bought whisky; hence his tragical end. The poor fellow got a coffin, but the county authorities paid for it—nails and all.

CHEATING INDIANS.—Charles H. Brown was arrested on Sunday by officer Lyne on a charge of having obtained $20 from two Indians, under pretence of buying them some tangle-leg. The whisky not being forthcoming at the proper time the Indians complained to the Police Magistrate. Upon investigation, however, the judge thought the charge not fully sustained (owing to the absence of one of the witnesses) and dismissed the charge.

NOT YET CAUGHT.—The robbers of the Victoria Brewery on last Friday, have not yet been found, although the police are exerting every nerve to discover the perpetrators. The loss falls very heavily upon Mr. Ochsner, who is ill able to bear it.

HEBREW ANNIVERSARIES.—The Jewish New Year will be celebrated on Monday and Tuesday of next week, 17th and 18th instant. The Day of Atonement will be celebrated on Wednesday, the 26th.

FALSE.—The rumor of rich gold discoveries on Nanaimo River, published by us some ten days since, proves to have had no foundation in fact. The story was started by a resident of Nanaimo, but for what purpose has not transpired.

POLITICAL EXCITEMENT.—Party feeling is running very high just now throughout the United States, and numerous incidents are published in our American exchanges where men have bet their entire property upon the success of their favorite candidate. Two Wisconsin papers have wagered their entire printing establishments—one against the other—upon the success of Lincoln or Douglas. A man in New York city has bet his four-story brown stone front building, against ten thousand dollars in cash, that Lincoln will be the next President. A clerk in a wholesale grocery house in Baltimore, with a wife and child to support, offers to bet his salary for one year ($1300) upon the success of Breckenridge. Several instances are mentioned where working men have staked their savings of many years upon the result. Of course, whichever way the election goes, one or the other must be a beggar; but that does not deter crowds of anxious sports in embryo from entering the lists, and bantering their opponents to "come down" on the result. Whoever may be the successful competitor, we trust he may prove a good and wise man, and that our cousins may continue to increase in the wealth, influence and prosperity which has so far blessed their enterprise.

FOREIGNERS NOT TO VOTE.—The House of Assembly yesterday decided that foreigners should not have a voice in municipal affairs, by adopting the clause that "none but British subjects shall be entitled to vote." This, we presume, puts an end to the matter. The Attorney General, who on Friday begged that the question might be deferred until yesterday, in order that he might commune with Morpheus on the subject three successive nights, had never a word to say, and the clause passed without discussion.

AUCTION SALE OF SUGAR.—P. M. Backus will sell by auction this morning at his salesroom, at 11 o'clock, 10,000 pounds Sandwich Island sugar, and a like quantity of Batavia sugar.

Col. E. D. Baker is again in Oregon. He takes the stump for the "Great Rail-splitter."

AN INDIAN STABBED.—A number of Cowichan and Nanaimo Indians visited their Songish friends on Saturday last, and on Sunday got drunk, and wandered over into the lodges of the Stickeen. Here a quarrel arose between a Cowichan and a Nanaimo, which resulted in the stabbing of the former by the latter. The wounded man was conveyed to the Hospital. He has an ugly wound in the left side, and the chances are he will not recover. The Cowichan left before daylight yesterday morning for his home to avoid arrest, but was overhauled in a canoe, when off Clover Point, by officer Blake, about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and brought to jail. He is a most desperate scoundrel, and had to be fired at by the officer before he would surrender.

THE MINING NEWS.—On another page we publish this morning the first letter from our special correspondent to Rock Creek; and also a letter from J. H. Batterton, Esq. The news contained therein will be found of a most encouraging nature, and speaks volumes in favor of the mines of our sister colony. It has always been our aim to lay the earliest and most reliable mining intelligence (cost what it may) before our readers upon the arrival of each steamer; nor would we begrudge the news which our impoverished cotemporary, the Gazette, weekly extracts from our columns, were proper credit given.

COLONIAL PAY.—Orders have recently been received to give the Royal Marines on San Juan extra pay. They certainly deserve it; for men who live on shore cannot live as cheap as those aboard ship. When this corps lay in the barracks at James' Bay, the men were hard pressed for spending money, and loudly complained of the niggardly way in which they were treated.

LATER MINING NEWS.

Letter from our Special Correspondent.

Intelligence from Quesnelle.

The Cariboo Diggings.

RICH GOLD DISCOVERIES.

The steamer Wilson G. Hunt, arrived from Fraser River at six o'clock on Saturday evening last. She brought a few passengers and about $18,000 in gold dust.

The news from Quesnelle River is very cheering in its character and goes far to establish the certainty of rich and extensive diggings in that locality.

Rock Creek also comes in for its share of good news, and notwithstanding the efforts of a few growlers, will doubtless prove a rich mining locality.

The following correspondence speaks volumes in favor of the British Columbia mines:

From our Special Correspondent.

Fort Hope, B. C.
September 7, 1860.

EDITOR BRITISH COLONIST:—I did not arrive at Hope till Friday morning, owing to the Colonel Moody taking us round by Douglas, which, however, gave me an opportunity of seeing the scenery of Harrison River and Lake. The country in this neighborhood is very picturesque, and is similar to some of the lake scenery of Switzerland, only on a more rugged scale.

IMMIGRANTS—FAINT HEARTS.

We had a party of thirteen miners on board who had come with three others direct from San Francisco to go to Rock Creek. Three of their number were captivated by the blandishments of the Portland people, and prevailed upon to try the Dalles route, the remainder preferred the old legitimate road via Victoria. On our arrival at New Westminster we were boarded by one or two croakers, who had returned from Rock Creek, and who gave such a dismal account of things there that two of the Californians determined to beat a retreat to Victoria and returned by the Wilson G. Hunt.

AN OLD FRIEND—GLOWING ACCOUNTS.

I struck a Canadian at New Westminster who was one of the Queen Charlotte Island expeditionists last year. He had just returned from Quesnelle River, where he had been mining. He was one of a party of seven men who first struck the rich diggings on Ferguson's Flat, or Rich Bar, at the mouth of Quesnelle. They staked out their claim of 100 feet each, but had them jumped by other miners, who cut the claims down to 25 feet. In a scuffle with these interlopers one man got a bullet through his leg. The flat is about three miles in extent, but only a portion pays large wages. My informant, who is perfectly reliable, states that he took out one ounce to thirty dollars a day to the hand for three weeks, and that $75 has been obtained there in one day by a man with a rocker. The miners on the Upper Fraser suffered much annoyance through the want of a commissioner to determine the size of claims. Mr. Nind had not arrived when my friend left. There are about 600 white miners above Alexandria, of which 400 are on the Quesnelle and the Cariboo country, and the remainder on the Fraser. With the exception of a small party on Quesnelle River, there are no Chinese above Alexander. A few men were mining as far up as Stuart's river, which runs from the coast into the Fraser.

CARIBOO.

The Cariboo diggings are different from the Fraser, the gold being found on the bed rock. Numerous creeks intersect the country, all of which are more or less auriferous. It seems to me, therefore, very probable that gold will be found in paying quantities between the Cariboo and Rock Creek.

ROCK CREEK—PROVISIONS.

Provisions are said to be very plentiful in the neighborhood of Rock Creek, which is certainly a great point gained in new mining districts.

DUTIES.

Every one that I have met with from that place is of opinion that the Oregon men will have it all their own way with the trade in those regions, unless a heavy duty is put on by government. This, of course, cannot be done this year, as the trail from Hope will be impassable in another six weeks; besides, until the country is thoroughly explored, it would be unwise to raise the cost of provisions, no matter how detrimental the present state of things may be to the interests of Victoria.

SUCCESSFUL MINERS.

I find successful miners have already come down from Quesnelle River to Victoria, without their advent being chronicled in the papers. An acquaintance of mine, named Nixon, a Sheffield man, who came here direct from Australia, went down with four or five companions in the Pacific on her last trip. They had all made their piles on Quesnelle this year.

PORT DOUGLAS—PROSPECTING.

Things were very quiet at Port Douglas. Several parties have been out prospecting in the mountains, and I saw one or two specimens of quartz with silver and gold visible in them. Prospecting seems all the rage there, as the "big wigs" (viz. the judge, &c.) were absent on the look out for ores. I walked out some distance on the new wagon road which is certainly a creditable piece of work. Packing from Douglas to Cayoosh is now done at 9 cents per lb.

CONFLICTING ACCOUNTS.

At Fort Hope the news from Rock Creek is very conflicting, and I find it rather a hard matter to separate the wheat from the chaff. One stout party with a billiard table located on the creek is eloquent on the riches which lie hidden in its gravelly bottom; another disinterested individual expatiates on the merits of the Similkameen. As yet, I can confidently say I have heard nothing to lower my estimate of the new diggings since I left Victoria. Several parties have returned from there and give a bad account of the mines, whilst others tell a very different story.

RICH STRIKES.

Some rich diggings have been struck on the South Fork of the Similkameen by two Canadians, novices at mining. They took out $300 in a few days, and have returned to Hope to take with them a friend, an experienced miner. I can vouch for the accuracy of the above which comes from a reliable source.

A KIND OFFER.

Mr. McKay, the Hudson Bay Company's factor, has kindly invited me to join his train which will go as far as Camp de Femme in the Similkameen Valley; but I have not yet determined to go with him, as it will probably be slow traveling. I shall leave to-day or to-morrow early for Rock Creek. The silver mines here are much the same as usual.

ARGUS.

Letter from Mr. Batterton.

Through the courtesy of W. T. Ballou, Esq., we are enabled to lay before our readers the following interesting letter from Mr. J. H. Batterton, the Quesnelle Expressman, and an old correspondent of the COLONIST:

FORKS OF QUESNELLE RIVER.
August 20, 1860.

Editor British Colonist:—Having a few leisure moments, I will devote the same in writing to my old friend, the COLONIST. Things here are flourishing "like a green bay tree." I consider the prospects of the miners in this section as most flattering. An old miner myself, I call myself a good judge of "prospects," and feel perfectly contented with the appearance of matters here. I will give you a few items by way of a sample of what we are doing:

FERGUSON'S BAR.

Forty miles above Alexander, on Fraser River, is Ferguson's Bar. There are about seventy-five men located here, all doing first rate. Some of the Hill's Bar boys are working here; they say this far surpasses Hill's Bar in its palmiest days. Three men from one rocker, yesterday, took out $70 in fine gold.

FORKS OF THE QUESNELLE.

Business is dull here at present, from the fact that many of the miners have left for the Cariboo country. Of the few left, none seem to be dissatisfied with their prospects. On the South Fork, at Rose's Gulch, some five miles above the forks, there have been pieces weighing from two to three ounces taken out. On the North Fork, the gold is finer, but pays equally as well.

THE CARIBOO COUNTRY.

Lays from thirty to sixty miles above the Forks, in a northeast direction, and comprises a portion of the country drained by the waters of the North Fork. Twenty-five miles up the North Fork, there is a lake four miles in length; one mile above again, one twelve miles long. Into these lakes from the north, some five streams empty, two of which have been prospected and found to be rich. The two prospected have been named—Harvey's and Keethley's Creeks.

$400 PER DAY TO THE HAND!

On Harvey's Creek men are making from eight dollars to $50 per day to the hand, and in some cases, much more. Harvey & Co. (five men) four days ago, cleaned up and found they had made $2,100 for six days' work, of as pretty gold as ever came out of the ground! On this stream about 100 men are at work, and I think at least 30,000 feet of lumber in use—all of which has been sawed out this season by hand.

KEETHLEY'S CREEK.

I believe this creek to be fully as rich as Harvey's. The day before I left, Black & Co. (four men—two shoveling, one hauling, and one sluice-forking,) took out eighteen ounces and two dollars. Pretty good for one day. Mr. Editor! Haseltine & Co. have a claim with a body of dirt some eight feet in thickness, the whole of which will apparently prospect from fifty to seventy-five cents to the pan—a fortune to the owners, if it proves to be of any extent. Sebastopol's claim, above high water mark, to 70 buckets of dirt, yielded $140. On the south side of those Lakes four streams empty in, one of which (Goose Creek) has been prospected. Only one company are at work on it, and they are making $20 per day to the man. I think there are about $150 men on Keethley's Creek.

THE RIGHTS OF MINERS CONTESTED.

Not many water-ditches in this country yet; no disputes to titles, so far as I know—only with the Beavers, who dam ditches and turn the water out in the night, and the miners damn the Beavers and turn it in again the next day.

ON HORSEFEELY.

The Blue Lead Co. have not made a very profitable summer's work. The ground is rich; but the country is so flat they can get no drain.

You shall hear from me again in a short time, when I shall endeavor to give you a much fuller account of matters here.

Yours truly,

JAMES H. BATTERTON.

DRUGS & MEDICINES.
DR. ADOLPHUS'
ANTI-RHEUMATIC CORDIAL
—AND—
Health Restorative
IS THE MOST VALUABLE AND UNsurpassed remedy for Rheumatism and Gout to be found in the world, or known at present. The discoverer of the above medicine does claim its infalibility in all cases of Rheumatism and Gout—when used according to direction—and does offer a reward of five thousand dollars to any medicine that does supercede it, and is entirely vegetable. The Doctor is enabled to offer the above reward on account of his having used the above medicine for ten years in his practice, and has never known it to fail in the cure of the most protracted cases of Rheumatism and Gout, and withstood all known remedies to the profession.
Doctor Adolphus is known and rightly celebrated throughout the State, for his cures in Rheumatism, Gout and Chronic Diseases, and has only to the continued urgent efforts of his patients, and through the desires of his friends, to spend a fortune to get rid of the disease, which they have contracted in the pursuit of their daily calling; only this has been able to persuade the Doctor to give the above medicine to the public, and at such terms that every suffering one should be able to reap its benefits.
As a Health Restorative its value supersedes all the mineral wealth and riches of California; and is creating a revolution in the whole treatment of disease throughout the world.
In secondary and tertiary Syphilis, Scrofula, Enlargement of the Glands, Dropsy, and all Nervous and Cutaneous Diseases, and the whole train of Chronic Diseases, which withstand and baffle the skill of the most excellent and learned physician in the world; in Chronic Diseases whose very name inspire terror as well to the physician as to the patient, this medicine has proved to be superior to any in existence, and has cured in so short a time that they appeared like being abolished by magic influence, and in fact a few months such discoveries, and drugs that will not need to keep a lot of useless medicines on hand, whenever they are prescribed once in a ten score they have lost through time their properties in which their value did reside. If there was actually any in them.
Take this medicine when your digestive organs are disordered and your blood is impure, it will surely act on your bowels.
Take this medicine when you have a cold, and it will make you perspire freely.
Take this medicine when your urinary and absorbing organs are disordered, and it will act on your kidneys—it penetrates every part of your body, scarcely even the most remote and secret recesses of your system, and removes the disease located there-it restores healthy action and gives tone to every organ in the human body—therefore it has rightfully deserved the name it bears: HEALTH RESTORATIVE.
The Doctor, who is averse to all patent medicines, wishes it to be understood that he has, through the instruction of this medicine with its treatise and directions for use, made every sufferer to be his own physician in the above named diseases.
Thinking it under my dignity to follow the mode of quacks, by appending certificates of physicians or private persons, which is too well known can be had for certain remunerations, applications of friends, or by the mode of boring a man half to death for even the most worthless trash, I will therefore leave it to those in want of medicine to inquire personally of those who have been cured by my medicines of all above diseases, and who can be found in almost every city and village throughout the State. I consider such personal conviction far superior to certificates of persons that are far from being known to them in want of medicine.
But should any one care for written testimonials or certificates regarding the cures performed by this medicine, they might call at my office, and I will show them certificates of true merit, which have been sent to me voluntarily, without applying for them, or by boring individuals to get them.
To satisfy the most scrupulous of men, also as a guarantee to those that have not had the opportunity of knowing the Doctor by reputation or personally, I have added to every bottle of the Anti-Rheumatic Cordial, the certificate, under oath, of one of the most celebrated analytical chemists in the United States, that there are no minerals nor poisons contained in this medicine, although it is a very powerful medicine, and has a very strong action on the human system, which it necessarily must have, to overcome the action of disease of such malignant character.

and their signature on each label. Beware also of a worthless article, called ROSENBAUM'S Bitters, put up in this city. Its external appearance is very much like the true Rosenbaum's, but it is useless as a remedial agent, and has only been got up to prey on the reputation attained by Rosenbaum's Bitters. For sale
